

SUPPLY LIST

Fall - Year 1

Lessons 15-27

Stewardship Note: Kids Kount Publishing recommends using a wide variety of resources with our lessons. This supply list is a guide. Our curriculum is meant to be adaptable, and this includes your selection of supplies. Feel free to substitute videos and crafts similar to the ones suggested. Check for items you may have on hand and adapt as needed. You may be able to use videos from your city library, video rental store, and members of your congregation or other churches.

If you are comfortable ordering over the Internet, new and used sources are available for videos and supplies at various prices.

Your ideas are a major resource in making this curriculum work for your children's ministry. You can help others by emailing your suggestions to info@kidskountpublishing.com.

Safety and Security: Safety and security procedures are important for each church to carefully define and implement according to their unique needs. The security, safety, illness and accident procedures described in this curriculum are provided for example purposes only and may not be appropriate, applicable or adequate for every situation. Each church is responsible for determining whether any security, safety, illness and accident procedures contained in the curriculum are appropriate, applicable or adequate for its unique situation. The activities described in this curriculum require adult supervision and may not be suitable for each child and each situation. Each church is responsible for ensuring that adequate adult supervision is provided for all activities and for determining whether an activity is appropriate for each child and each situation. Kids Kount Publishing disclaims all liability for the implementation of any procedures or the performance of any activities described in this curriculum.

“I will give my best to my small group. Every time we gather I will:

- 1. Be here regularly.
- 2. Search for how God wants me to grow closer to him.
- 3. Pray with my group and watch God work.
- 4. Talk about what I really think and feel.
- 5. Listen with respect to others and not betray another's secret, unless he/she is in danger.

Friendship Report Card

- ☐ POPULAR: Everyone else likes him/her.
- ☐ OTHER: _____

“Now You’re Talking” BINGO

Small Group Warm-Up

If you can talk to someone else for 15 seconds on one of the topics below, then you can mark that square with an “X.” Have the person who listened to you put his initials in the box. Remember: You must speak 15 seconds to mark an “X.” The same person cannot sign your cards two times in a row.

“My favorite things to do after school are...”	Talk about your pet.	Describe the job you would like to have when you’re an adult.
Tell about what you like to do on Saturdays.	“My favorite three TV shows are...”	“If I could trade places with someone for a day, I would trade places with...”
“If I could spend a day with one person, I would spend it with...”	Tell about your favorite hobby and why you like it.	Tell about your first day of school this year.

“Now You’re Listening” BINGO

	RED 1	RED 2	RED 3	RED 4	RED 5	RED 6
WHITE 1	If Jesus visited your home today, how would you spend the time together?	Jesus was called “Teacher.” Who has been one of your greatest spiritual teachers?	Talk about one thing for which you are especially thankful.	About how many minutes a day do you pray? (Be honest!)	If someone asked you who Jesus is, what would you say?	David played his harp and sang a song to God. If you sang a song to God, what would it be about?
WHITE 2	When did Jesus first become real to you?	Tell about a time you felt lonely or left out.	If you have ever experienced a miracle, talk about it.	You may COMMENT on any box you choose.	Tell about a time when you felt far from God.	Jesus told Martha, “You worry and fuss about a lot of things. There’s only one thing you need. If Jesus said that to you, what would he mean?”
WHITE 3	You may ask another player to QUESTION OR COMMENT on any box you choose.	If you knew you could ask God for 3 things and receive them right now, what would they be?	If you could change one family rule, what would it be?	Pretend you can change something about the way you look. What will you change?	Tell about something you don’t like about being older or bigger than last year.	If someone asked you to describe God, how would you do it?
WHITE 4	Tell about a time when God answered one of your prayers.	If you had the gift of healing, to whom would you minister today?	Name someone you miss that you haven’t seen for a while.	Which ability of Jesus would you most like to have? A) Teaching, B) Healing, C) Working miracles	You may ask a player one QUESTION OR COMMENT on any box you choose.	Jesus washed the feet of his disciples. How would you feel if Jesus washed your feet?
WHITE 5	Give 3 reasons why you think someone should become a Christian.	Tell about something you like to do with your whole family.	“Honor your father and your mother.” (Exodus 20:12) How do you honor your parents?	What do you think is the best thing about being an adult?	What do you suppose Jesus would do at your school?	God spoke to Moses through a burning bush. How does God speak to you?
WHITE 6	Who do you think is the funniest person in your family? Why?	You may COMMENT on any box you choose.	When do you feel closest to God?	If you had the courage of David when he killed Goliath, what giant would you like to slay in your life?	Jacob favored Joseph over his other sons, which made them very jealous. If you have felt jealousy, talk about it.	Complete the sentence: If God were to make an announcement to the world tomorrow, I wish it could be that _____.

Large Group “Bouncing Putty Antennae Slips”

Note: Copy on cardstock so that the strips of paper will look like antennae when placed in the putty.

Money is so important that it's okay to hurt others in order to get what you want.
A little white lie isn't a lie, its just bending the truth a little bit.
There is no such thing as right and wrong. Everyone can choose what is right for them.
The most important thing in the world is what others think about you.
A little cheating is okay, because everyone does it.
If you take God's name in vain, by saying, "Oh, my God," it's not really that bad because they do it on television all the time.
You are important if you do well in school or in sports.
It's okay to join in whenever anyone make fun of someone else.
It really doesn't matter what God you follow just as long as you are sincere.

How to Use a Bible Concordance

Every verse in the Bible has a reference or “address” to let you know where to find it. For example, “God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son...” is found in John 3:16. John is the book this verse is in, 3 is the chapter of the book and 16 is the verse.

Suppose you want to find a verse in the Bible about forgiveness. You can use a Bible concordance to find this verse. A concordance, like a dictionary, lists words in alphabetical order. References for where this word is found in the Bible are listed under it. The concordance also includes a few words or a phrase of each reference for the topic or word to help you find the context you want.

For example, when you look up forgiveness you may find:

- Psalm 130:4...But with you there is forgiveness,
- Acts 10:43...believes in him receives forgiveness of sins,
- Ephesians 1:7...through his blood, the forgiveness of sins,
- Hebrew 9:22...the shedding of blood there is no forgiveness,

When you find the word and the context you are searching for, you can then look up that reference and read the entire verse.

Other topics or questions:

How can I be saved?

- Isaiah 25:9...we trust in him, and he saved us.
- Isaiah 38:20...The Lord will save me,
- Daniel 3:17...the God we serve is able to save us
- Joel 2:32...on the name of the Lord will be saved,
- Mark 13:13...firm to the end will be saved,
- John 10:9...enters through me will be saved,
- Acts 16:30...do to be saved?” They replied,
- Romans 10:13...on the name of the Lord will be saved,”
- Ephesians 2:8...For it is by grace you have been saved,

Is hell a real place?

- Matthew 25:45...Then they will go away to be punished forever.
- Mark 9:48...In hell, ‘The worms do not die. The fire is not put out.’”
- Luke 12:5...has power to throw you into hell,
- Luke 16:23...In hell, where he was in torment
- 2 Peter 2:4...Instead, he sent them to hell. He put them in dark prisons.

Little Known Facts about Shepherds

Little Known Facts about Shepherds
Gathering the Facts Questionnaire
(To be distributed the Sunday before.)

Next week we will play a game called "Little Known Facts about Shepherds." Please list two or three interesting background facts about you that probably no one knows. This might be a special hobby or previous experience. It could be a place where you've traveled or something glamorous that you've done. Choose things that people would not normally associate with you. Don't let any kids know what you have written. Turn it in today, so we can compile it for our game next week. (Note: This game needs at least four adults or shepherds in your church. If you do not have that many adults working with this age group, recruit some other adults who would be willing to get in the fun.)

APPENDIX

Excerpted from The Hiding Place by Corrie ten Boom with John and Elizabeth Sherrill, Bantam Books, 1975

Pg 199 - Betsie and Corrie have just been introduced to their new living quarters in a wooden barrack.

"We followed our guide single file—the aisle was not wide enough for two—fighting back the claustrophobia of these platforms rising everywhere above us. The tremendous room was nearly empty of people; they must have been out on various work crews. At last she pointed to a second tier in the center of a large block. To reach it, we had to stand on the bottom level, haul ourselves up, and then crawl across three other straw-covered platforms to reach the one that we would share with—how many? The deck above us was too close to let us sit up. We lay back, struggling against the nausea that swept over us from the reeking straw. We could hear the women who had arrived with us finding their places.

Suddenly I sat up, striking my head on the cross slats above. Something had pinched my leg. "Fleas!" I cried. "Betsie, the place is swarming with them!"

We scrambled across the intervening platforms, heads low to avoid another bump, dropped down to the aisle, and edged our way to a patch of light. "Here! And here another one!" I wailed. "Betsie, how can we live in such a place!"

"Show us. Show us how." It was said so matter of factly it took me a second to realize she was praying. More and more the distinction between prayer and the rest of life seemed to be vanishing for Betsie.

"Corrie!" she said excitedly. "He's given us the answer! Before we asked, as He always does! In the Bible this morning. Where was it? Read that part again!"

I glanced down the long dim aisle to make sure no guard was in sight, then drew the Bible from its pouch. "It was in 1 Thessalonians," I said. We were on our third complete reading of the New Testament since leaving Scheveningen. In the feeble light I turned the pages. "Here it is: 'Comfort the frightened, help the weak. Be patient with everyone. See that none of you repays evil for evil, but always seek to do good to one another and to all...' It seemed written expressly to Ravensbruck.

(*Summarize: Did you see how hard and cruel their life was? Does it seem to be a difficult place to give thanks? When answers and comments have been received, continue reading.)

"Go on," said Betsie. "That wasn't all."

"Oh yes: '...to one another and to all. Rejoice always, pray constantly, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus—"

"That's it, Corrie! That's His answer. 'Give thanks in all circumstances!' That's what we can do. We can start right now by thanking God for every single thing about this new barrack!"

I stared at her, then around me at the dark, foul-aired room. "Such as?" I said.

"Such as being assigned here together."

I bit my lip. "Oh yes, Lord Jesus!"

"Such as what you're holding in your hands."

I looked down at the Bible. "Yes! Thank You, dear Lord, that there was no inspection when we entered here! Thank you for all the women, here in this room who will meet You in these pages."

"Yes," said Betsie. "Thank you for the very crowding here. Since we're packed so close, that many more will hear!" She looked at me expectantly. "Corrie!" she prodded.

"Oh, all right. Thank You for the jammed, crammed, stuffed, packed, suffocating crowds."

"Thank You," Betsie went on serenely, "for the fleas and for—"

The fleas! This was too much. "Betsie, there's no way God can make me grateful for a flea."

"Give thanks in ALL circumstances." She quoted. "It doesn't say, 'in pleasant circumstances.' Fleas are part of this place where God has put us."

And so we stood between piers of bunks and gave thanks for the fleas. But this time I was sure Betsie was wrong.

Pg. 201 - after starting services in their barracks...

At first Betsie and I called these meetings with great timidity. But as night after night went by and no guard ever came near us, we grew bolder. So many now wanted to join us that we held a second service after evening roll call. There on the Lagerstrasse we were under rigid surveillance, guards in their warm wool capes marching constantly up and down. It was the same in the center room of the barracks: half a dozen guards or camp police always present. Yet in the large dormitory room there was almost no supervision at all. We did not understand it.

Pg 209 - wondering why they were not supervised more closely:

"You know we've never understood why we had so much freedom in the big room," Betsie said. "Well, I've found out."

That afternoon, she said, there'd been confusion in her knitting group about sock sizes and they'd asked the supervisor to come and settle it.

"But she wouldn't. She wouldn't step through the door and neither would the guards. And you know why?"

Betsie could not keep the triumph from her voice: "Because of the fleas! That's what she said, 'That place is crawling with fleas!'"

My mind rushed back to our first hour in this place. I remembered Betsie's bowed head, remembered her thanks to God for creatures I could see no use for.
