Scene 1: Gossipy Girls

Two girls gossip about another girl who is reading the Bible. They talk about how, “She just thinks she’s so much more holy than the rest of us.” They say things like: everyone else does homework, prays and studies the Bible, too, but we don’t have to do it in front of everybody else and act so “big” about it.

Scene 2: Victim Boy

A boy has his offering dollars tucked into his Bible. He has been using them as a bookmark for the memory verse he has been trying so hard to remember for his small group shepherd. On his way to church, he has some extra time and sets his Bible down on a bench at the playground to join some friends in a quick game of touch football. Another kid at the busy playground sees the money sticking out of the Bible, pulls the money out and puts it in his pocket.

Scene 3: Adult Sabotage

The musicians and singers in the church praise band have exceptional talent and have even recorded some original works in a professional studio. One member of the group never misses a practice and has been singing in worship services for the last 50 years. Everyone in the congregation appreciates her dedication to the church and her spirit-filled attitude. Unfortunately, over the years, she has lost some of her ability to sing on key or to hear when she is off key. To keep the group sounding a certain way during Sunday services, the media technician decided to turn down her microphone volume to its lowest level from the sound booth during praise band songs each week.
