God Saved Cain with a Mark

(Blank face to fill in and mark on the forehead)

God Saves Us with the Cross

And God said,
"Let My People Go!"

book by:

Finally
Pharaoh said, "GO!"
Moses said,
"I told you so."

Pharaoh said, "NO!"
God said...

River turned to blood.

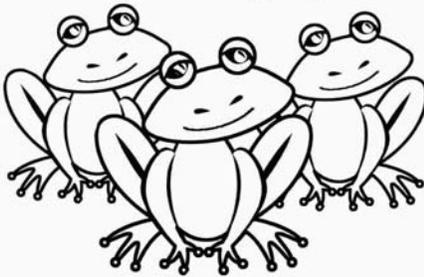

Death of the firstborn son.

God said...

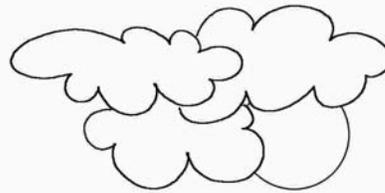

Pharaoh said, "NO!"

Pharaoh said, "NO!"
God said...

Frogs covered the land.

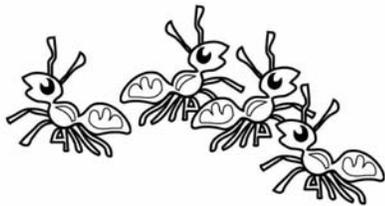

Darkness over the land.

God said...

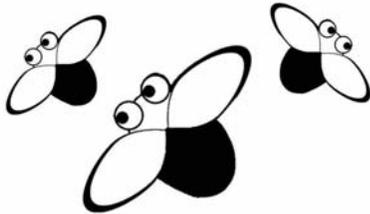

Pharaoh said, "NO!"

Pharaoh said, "NO!"
God said...

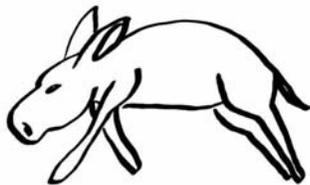

Bugs everywhere.

Pharaoh said, "NO!"
God said...

Flies plagued the land.

Pharaoh said, "NO!"
God said...

Farm animals died.

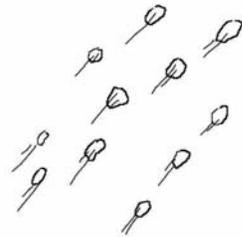

Grasshoppers filled the land.

God said...

Pharaoh said, "NO!"

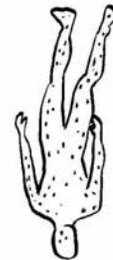

Hailstorm hit the land.

God said...

Pharaoh said, "NO!"

People full of sores.

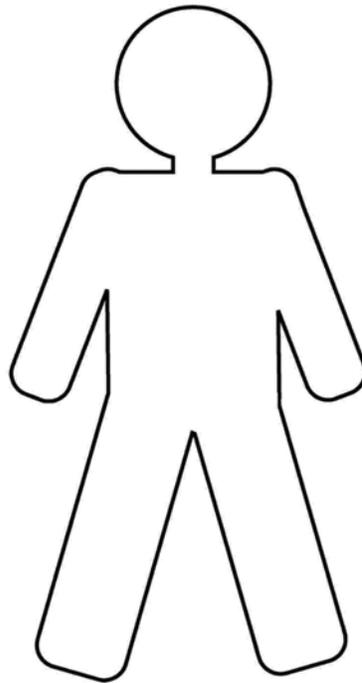

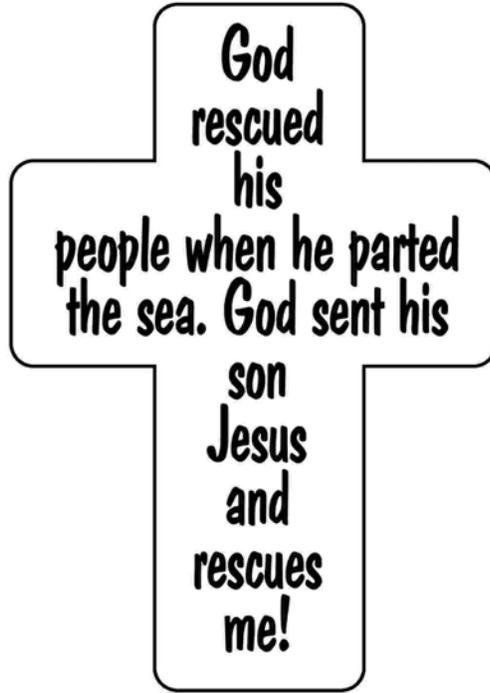

God said...

Pharaoh said, "NO!"

Construction of booklet:

1. Photocopy both sheets. Each child will need one of each sheet.
2. Color pictures with crayons, colored pencils or markers. Place child's name on the blank line.
3. Cut sheet number one (titled with... "And God said, "Let My people go!") in half vertically so that there are three pictures on each strip.
4. Take the first two strips (Titled: "And God said, 'Let My people go!'... and, "Finally Pharaoh said, "Go!" Moses said, "I told you so.") and put them back to back, drawings to the outside. Tape the tops of the two strips together.
5. Fold in it the middle, pictures on the outside. Make a mountain fold between picture one and two and valley fold between two and three. Do this to both strips.
6. Lay the project with pictures number one (the title squares), down on a flat surface. The rest of the pictures should be in their fan-folded position.
7. Take sheet two (one column vertical and the other completely upside down with plagues on them) and cut in half vertically. Place these two strips face-to-face, pictures to the inside. Tape the bottoms of the strips together. Valley fold on the first line of each strip and mountain fold the second line of each strip.
8. Glue stick or tape the backs of the "frog" picture to the "bug" picture. Then again, glue stick or tape the backs of the "grasshopper" and "darkness" pictures together.
