

God Talk at Home

This Week's Lesson:

Peter Denies Knowing Jesus

Take Home Point:

Jesus knows my mistakes....Jesus forgives my mistakes.

DRIVE TIME HOME: PARENTS, ASK ME WHAT I DID TODAY

- Puppet: Bubba felt bad after denying he believed in Jesus.
- Bible Event: We had a visit from an actor pretending to be Peter.
- Craft: We decorated a rooster to remind us it crowed after Peter denied knowing Jesus.
- Snack: We ate chicken-flavored crackers.
- Game: We played "Peter, Tell the Truth".
- We taught Albie the take home point.

- The traveler told us about Peter denying Jesus.
- Created a rooster face with vanilla wafers and various candies.
- Water colors and crayon cross help us see that Jesus' forgiveness shines through.

FAMILY DEVOTIONS: Read the Bible Event from a children's' Bible:

Peter denies knowing Jesus. (Mark 14: 66-72)

TALK ABOUT IT:

- What did Peter do that Jesus forgave?
- What are sins do you do?
- Why does Jesus forgive you?

PRAYER POWER:

(Have child repeat after adult)

Dear God,
We love you.
Jesus knows my mistakes.
He forgives me.
Thank you, thank you, thank you.
In Jesus' name.
Amen.

SONG OF THE DAY:

(To the tune of London Bridge)

Capitalized letters indicate emphasis on that syllable when the rhyme is sung.

JE-sus KNO-ws MY mis-TAKES.
MY mis-TAKES. MY mis-TAKES.
JE-sus KNO-ws MY mis-TAKES.
HE for-GIVES me.

FAMILY TIME OPTIONS:

Play "Hot or Cold" using a plastic Easter egg filled with jellybeans. Send your child out of the room and hide the egg. When he comes in, have him look for the egg. If he gets near it say "hot." If he is far away, say "cold." After he finds the egg, take turns naming sins you sometimes do for each jellybean in the egg. Thank Jesus that he forgives you and eat the jellybeans. Just as the jellybeans are gone, our sins are gone!
