Small Group Warm-Up: 15 minutes

Purpose: Get pointed in the right direction! Build relationships and help guests feel at ease. Do the learning readiness activity that will point your group in the right direction for the lesson.

Kids have just experienced or will be experiencing, the second greatest holiday for kids in America—Halloween. They have been exposed to themes of ghosts, witches, monsters, the devil, and death. What are they to think about such things? We will help them understand that there is a real battle between the force of darkness and the force of God and his angels. They need not fear, because Jesus has won the victory!

This activity will give opportunity to hear children's misconceptions about the spiritual world and to enforce the truth according to God's Word.

Divide the group into two teams, giving each team different color tokens. Using the sheet, "Do You Believe in Ghosts?" (See page 6), players alternately place a token on a square and give their answer for that question. The object of the game is for each team to get as many tokens of three in a row as possible. (Note: Making a row of three intersected by a row of three is an effective way of getting a higher count of three-in-a-rows.)

As the children give their answers, read to them from a brief key sheet that tells them what the Bible says about that question (see page 7).

In counting up the rows at the end of the game, point out that the real way we win this game is by finding the power of the cross.

Today we will learn when faced with scary lies from the devil to say, "**I belong to Jesus, Satan take a hike!*"

Large Group: 20-30 minutes

Purpose: Help kids observe what the Bible says. Present the Bible event in creative fashion. Help kids begin to interpret what it means.

Overview

Puppet Presentation: "Gordy Gets Spooked"

Dramatic Presentation: "Gordy Gets Spooked"

The presenter will do an audience participation event. He will select one child from the audience who will be seated in the center of a large circle marked on the ground. There will be a large cross on a pole in the center. The child is standing on conquered ground. An actor will play the role of Satan and will use his typical strategies to trick the child. Satan will try to get the child to forget the fact that he stands on conquered ground. The leader then coaches the child (and all the kids) to stand on conquered ground by standing and saying *I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike.

Small Group Application: 20-25 minutes

Purpose: Help kids map out the meaning of the Bible event in their lives. Use the questions to stimulate discussion but don't feel tied to them. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. Include personal examples from your own faith journey. The example of Christ at work in your life will leave lasting impressions of how Christ can work in the children's lives.

Use your Bibles! Children need to learn how to look up references and follow along when scripture is read aloud. Allow for quality time of prayer at the close of the lesson.

Observation Questions: What happened?

When the devil attacks you or tries to get you to do something you shouldn't do, what do you need to remember? Where are you standing? (Read John 16:33. We live on conquered ground. Jesus has overcome the world.)

What does it mean to live on conquered ground? (Hebrews 2:14. Jesus died on the cross for us and won the battle against the devil.)

Interpretation Questions: What does this mean?

How do you think the devil feels when he knows he has been conquered? (1 Peter 5:8. He is angry and will try to trick me into believing he has power.)

How do you feel when you realize that Jesus has already won the battle? (I feel relieved and full of courage because I know Jesus has fought the battle for me.)

Application Questions: What does this mean to me?

What does this mean for you when you are tempted to do something wrong? (*I can stand courageously and boldly and tell Satan, *I belong to Jesus, Satan, take a hike.*)

Our memory verse for today is James 4:7, "Resist the devil, and he will run away from you." Repeat that with me. When you are tempted to sin, call on Jesus and he will help you resist.

Application Activity:

Give each child a paper plate and have the children draw pictures of or write words for spiritual battles (temptations of Satan) they may face. Give them examples and discuss these with them. Temptations they may face could include cheating, lying, talking back, calling names, or using cuss words. Children may also struggle with fears of monsters, devils, the dark, or being alone. These are also Satan's lies. Talk about what they learned in today's lesson.

Then say,

We can stand behind Jesus who has already defeated Satan for us. We can boldly face Satan because we are standing on Jesus' conquered ground where Satan can't touch us! We can say, **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!

Use the rectangle sponges dipped in the red paint to make crosses on the spiritual battles depicted on the paper plates. Have them stamp twice over each temptation or fear with the rectangles to make a cross.

We are reminding ourselves of standing on conquered ground. The blood of Jesus is applied to our lives so we can say (each time we blot), **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!

Closing Prayer:

Close with prayer as each child prays for his own spiritual battles. Please make sure to spend plenty of time in prayer with the children.

Safety and Security: Safety and security procedures are important for each church to carefully define and implement according to their unique needs. The security, safety, illness and accident procedures described in this curriculum are provided for example purposes only and may not be appropriate, applicable or adequate for every situation. Each church is responsible for determining whether any security, safety, illness and accident procedures contained in the curriculum are appropriate, applicable or adequate for its unique situation. The activities described in this curriculum require adult supervision and may not be suitable for each child and each situation. Each church is responsible for ensuring that adequate adult supervision is provided for all activities and for determining whether an activity is appropriate for each child and each situation. Kids Kount Publishing disclaims all liability for the implementation of any procedures or the performance of any activities described in this curriculum.

Do you believe in ghosts?

“Do You Believe in Ghosts?”

Please keep answers brief so all kids can talk. Listen to their comments, and be praying for effective small group time at the end of today's lesson to more fully prepare them with the truth. Tell the children that all these answers come from the Bible.

1. No. The souls of people who have died do not stay around our world. But, there are spiritual beings created by God called angels and demons. Demons are angels who have “fallen” or turned away from God. But God is more powerful than they are because he made them. (Ephesians 6:12.)
2. No. We only live once here on earth, but we do live forever, either in heaven or in hell. (Hebrews 9:27.)
3. No. But they can make contact with the spirit world, talking to evil spirits who pretend to be other people who have lived before. (1 Samuel 28.)
4. No. But people can get evil power from the devil.
5. Yes. It can at times, but it does not work for good. Its power comes from the devil. (Exodus 7:22.)
6. Yes. These are people who practice getting dark powers from the devil. (1 Samuel 28.)
7. Yes. But usually for people to be controlled by the devil, they have to give him permission to take control of their lives. (Luke 11:14-26.)
8. No. Angels are heavenly creatures who live in God's presence and work for him. God sends them as messengers or to help us. (Psalm 91:11, Psalm 103:20, and Revelation 10:1.)
9. Yes. But you can resist him, and he will flee from you. (James 4:7.)
10. No. But the devil would like us to trust in luck rather than trusting in God. (Exodus 20:4.)
11. Yes. Sometimes God will let one of his special people prophesy about the future so that it helps people turn to him. The devil doesn't know the future. (Acts 21:10-11.)
12. Call on the name of Jesus and tell the devil to “take a hike.” (Luke 10:18-20.)
13. No. Some witches say they practice good magic. But God tells us that they are still going to the devil for their power and he might even disguise it to look like it's good. (Deuteronomy 18:10-12, Acts 8:18-25, and 2 Corinthians 11:14.)
14. Let the child answer.
15. Let the child answer.
16. Yes. And Jesus has won so you can win, too!

Large Group Presentation

Gordy Gets Spooked!

Puppet Presentation

Mr. King: Kids, should we see what Gordy is up to today?

Gordy: (Appears with paper bag over his head and is shaking.) Is that you, Mr. King?

Mr. King: Gordy, what on earth is wrong with you? Why do you have a paper sack over your head? (Take bag off of his head.)

Gordy: Well, it's that time of the year that really scares me. It's Halloween. All those witches and ghosts and vampires and stuff scare me.

Mr. King: So what's with the paper sack?

Gordy: I figure that if I could just keep hidden then none of them would bother me. The other night, I watched a movie about vampires and now I'm even afraid to sleep with the lights out.

Mr. King: You don't have to worry about vampires. Vampires aren't real. Although sometimes people pretend to be vampires and some of them might even follow the devil.

Gordy: Follow the devil?

Mr. King: Yes, the devil will do anything he can to trick people or scare them into thinking he is more powerful than God.

Gordy: Wow, that's really spooky!

Mr. King: It could be, Gordy, unless you know how to fight back.

Gordy: Yikes! Sure...I'm an expert in karate...but even then...this is the devil you're talking about.

Mr. King: Actually, it's Jesus who fights the devil. He has already beaten the devil. We just stand on conquered ground.

Gordy: Stand on conquered ground?

Mr. King: Yes, I'll explain. It is just like when an army fights for a territory, and when they are victorious, the territory becomes conquered ground. You can stand on Jesus' conquered ground when you can claim his victory over the devil. You can tell the devil certain words that he can't stand against.

Gordy: Are they secret words?

Mr. King: Well, they are special words, but not secret. You will learn them today.

Gordy: Can I learn them now?

Mr. King: Why don't you listen to today's lesson? See if you can learn these powerful words of spiritual warfare. Satan wants to trick us into staying on his side. He will use anything to get us. This is called spiritual warfare.

Gordy Gets Spooked

Dramatic Presentation

Overview:

The large group leader selects one child from the audience who will be seated in the center of a large circle marked on the ground with red yarn. A large cross on a pole should be placed in the center. This represents the child standing on conquered ground. You need to know ahead of time that the child is a true believer and is secure in his salvation.

*An actor plays the role of Satan and uses his typical strategies to trick the child. Satan tries to get the child to forget the fact that he stands on conquered ground or not to use it. The leader then coaches the child (and all the kids) to stand on conquered ground by standing and saying *I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike.

Mr. King: Does anyone else here feel like Gordy? Kind of scared of spooky things on Halloween? We want to help you know how you can fight Satan and his demons with the power of Jesus.

Put on an army hat, fatigues, or something that helps you look like a soldier.

Do you know there is a spiritual battle happening right now? It's happening right here in our lives. You might not be able to see Satan or the demons, or you might not be able to see God and his angels but they are there. Let me show you how it works.

Call up a volunteer and have him sit on a chair in the circle with a cross in the middle of it. Say to the volunteer:

Do you know Jesus as your Savior and Lord? If you do, then you are standing with Jesus on conquered ground. The reason you are in this circle is to show that you live on conquered ground. Jesus already defeated his enemy and your enemy, Satan. He did that when he died on the cross for our sins. Jesus came back to life to give whoever trusts him, the right to stand on his conquered ground. The war has been won. Jesus conquered Satan so Satan does not have power to keep us from God.

Introduce the volunteer to the group. You might even give him soldier's gear.

Mr. King: Do you trust Jesus as your Savior? When you believe this, you can stand on conquered ground. That means you can claim Jesus' victory over Satan when he tries to scare or tempt you.

Satan doesn't like this. He doesn't want you to follow Jesus. He doesn't want you to believe the truth. He doesn't want you to have God's peace.

You have power over Satan through God's Word. Jesus said in Luke 10:18-19, "I watched Satan fall from heaven like lightning. I have given you the authority to trample snakes and scorpions and to destroy the enemy's power. Nothing will hurt you."

You can tell Satan, **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike.* Practice this with me. Whenever you hear the cue "and everyone says..." you say: **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike.*

Let me now introduce you to your enemy, Satan, sometimes called the Prince of Darkness or the devil.

The next part of this sketch takes imagination and drama from an actor portraying Satan. He will present four short monologues trying to convince us of the lies of who he is. (Option: Instead of an actor, have someone off-stage speak as the voice of Satan.)

Lie #1. Satan is not real

The actor presents this in a monologue to the audience, but really goes at it with the child sitting on conquered ground. He comes out wearing a Halloween costume with red horns on his head and carrying a play pitchfork.

Satan: I'm not a real person...just an imaginary creature. You have seen those innocent pictures of me...a cute little red character with a long tail and horns carrying a harmless pitchfork. Actually, I can be kind of friendly.

The presenter then addresses the Satan character with the Bible verse:

Mr. King: "Keep your mind clear, and be alert. Your opponent the devil is prowling around like a roaring lion as he looks for someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8). And everyone says...

Everyone: **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!*

Lie #2. Satan is all powerful.

The Satan actor now goes to a different section of the stage. Here he puts on an evil black cape and dark mask. He targets God's child sitting on conquered ground.

Satan: Ha, ha, ha, ha, ha. I'll bet you don't know how powerful I really am. (Waving cape in a sinister way.) I was once an angel in heaven. Not just any angel, but the most powerful and good looking one. I wanted to be more powerful than God, so I led a rebellion against him. A third of God's angels chose to follow ME, and now they are in my army...my demons!

I am so horrible and mean that no one can stop me and my demons. I am like those monsters you see on television, except that I can't be defeated. I will come and get every boy and girl because that is my way of getting back against God.

Mr. King: There is some truth in this, but some lies as well. He is not all-powerful. As a matter of fact, Jesus has defeated him. When Jesus died on the cross, it broke the power of sin to separate us from God.

Jesus told his followers, “I have given you authority to overcome the power of the enemy!” Then everyone says...

Everyone: **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!*

The presenter now exposes the truth. He comes over to Satan and pulls off the cape and mask.

Mr. King: Satan usually comes to us in very ordinary everyday looking ways. Most of the time, we don't even realize his presence or influence. Sometimes he even comes to us disguised as something that sounds good or uses other tactics to invade our conquered ground.

Mr. King: (With a sucker in hand.) Sometimes Satan will try to trap us with evil desires or things we want that are not God pleasing. An evil desire is wanting something that we desire so much, that we sin to get it. For example, is there anything wrong with this sucker in my hand? No of course not. But what if...

Lie #3. “It's not really bad for you.”...temptation to sin

At this time, the Satan character takes the sucker, enters the circle, and begins to tempt.

Satan: Look at this yummy, luscious sucker...It is so scrumptious. I'll bet you haven't had anything sweet in such a long time...you've just got to have it. Let me see, I think your mother left some of these in the pantry. She didn't really mean for you to wait until after dinner to have one. Just sneak into the cabinet when she isn't looking...she will never find out. Ha, ha, ha, ha ha.

Mr. King: And everyone says...

Everyone: **I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!*

Satan: (Walking away) Rats!

Mr. King: Satan will also use worldly messages to tempt us.

Lie #4. Gotta have it.

Satan: You would be so popular if you wore (insert popular name brand) shoes... You know you will be happy and all your problems solved if you had your own (insert latest video game or popular activity.) Then everyone would want to be your friend.

Why don't you beg your mom and dad for it...in fact throw a tantrum...you deserve these things. Everyone else has them.

Mr. King: "Resist the devil, and he will run away from you." (James 4:7b)
You stand on conquered ground. And everyone says...

Everyone: *I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike!

Satan: (rejected) Ah, foiled again. Exits stage.

Gordy: Mr. King! Mr. King! I think I've got it!

Mr. King: What's that, Gordy?

Gordy: I know the special words for spiritual warfare.

Mr. King: What are they?

Gordy: I belong to Jesus.... (Rap style) so Satan, take a hike on your bike. I give you the psych, and take away your mic....

Mr. King: Okay, Gordy, that's enough. Just tell Satan to take a hike in Jesus' name. Gordy, will you say a closing prayer so the boys and girls can go back to their small groups?

Gordy: Sure! Dear God, thank you for Jesus defeating Satan on the cross. Thank you that I never have to be afraid of him. Thank you that I can resist Satan's temptations because I can stand on the conquered ground that Jesus won for me. Help me to remember if ever I am scared or facing temptation to say... *I belong to Jesus. Satan, take a hike! Amen.
