Small Group Warm-Up: 15 minutes

Purpose: Get pointed in the right direction! Build relationships and help guests feel at ease. Do the learning readiness activity that will point your group in the right direction for the lesson.

The game, “Rescue the Paper Clip” is played for review of Bible events from Moses to Ruth. For the game you will need a game sheet of questions and about 50 small paper clips. Kids will open up the paper clips in the middle so they are bent at a 90-degree angle. (See picture below.)

Today we are going to play the game “Rescue the Paper Clip.” This will help us remember the Bible events we have studied so far this season. We have learned that God is our Rescuer. Trust him. We will recall how God rescued his people through Moses, Joshua, and the Judges.*

Have kids open up the paper clips by bending each one back. As they do this ask them to give examples of how God has rescued them.

Have kids put all the opened paper clips on the ground in the middle of the group. Divide your group into two teams and explain the rules.

Explain that each of the paper clips needs rescuing. A paper clip can be rescued by another paper clip when a question is answered correctly. A paper clip cannot be picked up with a hand, only another paper clip.

The object of the game is to make the longest chain by answering the most questions correctly. Each team will start with one paper clip. After a person on a team answers the question correctly he can rescue a paper clip and then pass the paper clip chain on to another teammate. If a question is missed, the other team will have a chance to answer the same question. If they answer correctly, they can rescue a paper clip. Then they get to answer the next question because it would be their turn.

Both teams take turns, and each person on the team answers a question. No one else can give the answer, but they can look up the Bible verse and read it aloud. Only 30 seconds are allowed to answer each question.

Watch out! If a paper clip chain breaks at any time, you keep on playing with the chain you have in your hand. Be careful when you pass your chain to a teammate so it doesn't break.

Questions for this game are attached to the back of this lesson. This activity will be continued in the small group application, so don't feel like you need to complete all the questions now. Note that some of the questions may be interpretation or application questions. As such, any reasonable answer will be accepted. If kids don't get the answer, just read it to them and let the next team have a turn. Skip any questions you think may be too difficult for younger children.

Before going to large group state the take home point again as follows.

In a special way, we are like these paper clips that are rescued by God. We must trust him and hang on to his promise just like the paper clips hang on to one another. When people share God's promises with others, they help those others find God's rescue. They can reach out to rescue others and help them be a part of the chain.

Today in large group we will learn that God is our rescuer. Trust him.*

Large Group: 20-30 minutes

Purpose: Help kids observe what the Bible says. Present the Bible event in creative fashion. Help kids begin to interpret what it means.

Overview

Puppet Presentation: "Gordy and the Rescue Chain" – Gordy needs a rescue because he thinks someone will hit him for breaking the paper clip chain.

Interactive Game: "Who's the Real Rescuer?" – Contestants from the audience play a rescue game as they review Bible events from Moses to Ruth.

Puppet Presentation Conclusion: "Gordy and the Rescue Chain?" – Mr. King explains that throughout the Old Testament God rescued his people. The ultimate rescuer is Jesus, God's Son, who rescues us from our sin.

Small Group Application: 20-25 minutes

Purpose: Help kids map out the meaning of the Bible event in their lives. Use the questions to stimulate discussion but don't feel tied to them. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. Include personal examples from your own faith journey. The example of Christ at work in your life will leave lasting impressions of how Christ can work in the children's lives.

Use your Bibles! Children need to learn how to look up references and follow along when scripture is read aloud. Allow for quality time of prayer at the close of the lesson.

Observation Questions/Interpretation Questions

Continue playing the review game using the questions provided. Most of the questions are simple observation questions that help the students remember the facts of the stories. Interpretation questions and application questions begin with “In your opinion...” and you may accept any reasonable answer. It is unlikely you will finish all the questions, so select as best fits your pacing. When you are done, you might offer rewards to both teams.

Application Questions: What does this mean to me?

*It is important to tie the take home point, God is our rescuer—trust him, into the concluding discussion.

Ask these concluding questions.

We have learned many true events of how God rescued his people back in the days of Moses, Joshua, and the Judges. Would it be easier for you to trust God if you had lived back then, or easier to trust him today? Explain why.

What rescue from God is the most amazing of all time?

Lead the kids to discover how Jesus, God’s own Son, giving himself as a sacrifice for our sins, is the greatest rescue of all time. It might be easier for us to believe this today since we live after it happened than to understand it and trust God back in Moses’ time, before it happened.

Colossians 1:13-14 says, “God has rescued us from the power of darkness and has brought us into the kingdom of his Son, whom he loves. His Son paid the price to free us, which means that our sins are forgiven.”

If you have never said to God, “I trust you to rescue me, because you sent Jesus as my Savior,” then you may trust Jesus and pray that today. You can know for sure that if you trust him as your rescuer, you will be rescued from the power of sin and the devil. You will live forever with him in heaven.

Let's close in prayer and let each person who wants to, say thanks to God for being his or her rescuer!

Closing Prayer:

Dear God, thank you for rescuing us by sending Jesus. We need Jesus because each one of us has sinned, and we can never do enough to earn our way to heaven or to make ourselves perfect. Thank you that Jesus lived a perfect life in our place, and he died to take the punishment of our sin. Thank you that Jesus is alive today and wants to live in each one of our hearts. Come into our hearts, and help us live for you. In Jesus' name. Amen.

Now here are more prayers that we would like to talk to you about...

Let individual children pray.

Gordy and the Rescue Chain

Puppet Presentation
“God Is Our Rescuer” Review

Mr. King: Kids, did you have fun rescuing paper clips this morning? I hope so. Let’s see how Gordy did. Gordy, would you come out now?

Kids chant, "Gor-dy! Gor-dy! Gor-dy!"

Gordy: Hi, kids! Hi, Mr. King! Before we get started, Mr. King, I need to ask you something.

Mr. King: Okay, go ahead.

Gordy: No, come here. I need to whisper. (Mr. King moves close to listen to Gordy’s whisper.)

Mr. King: Gordy, I can’t give you more paper clips.

Gordy: But I need some! My group is in trouble!

Mr. King: What do you mean?

Gordy: Well, when someone rescued paper clips his chain broke, and half of them fell off! And now that someone is in trouble!

Mr. King: Well, that someone will just have to follow the rules and keep on connecting with the part of the chain that didn’t fall off.

Gordy: But Mr. King, what if I get hit when I go back to the group?

Mr. King: So, Gordy, you’re the one who did it.

Gordy: Yep, and now I’m going to get hit.

Mr. King: I don’t believe we have anyone here who would do that. Did someone say they would hit you?

Gordy: No, but they were thinking it. I need a way out of this mess.

Mr. King: I guess you do. You need a rescuer.

Gordy: No, I need some more paper clips.

Mr. King: Better than that, Gordy, you need a rescuer. Take your Bible with you, and you can look up the answers. You will learn that God rescues you. Trust him.

Gordy: But how can God rescue me when someone is going to punch me?

Mr. King: First of all, I don't think anyone is going to punch you. But even so, don't you remember that God rescued his people through Moses, Joshua, and all the different Judges? If he could do mighty things like that, don't you think he could help you?

Gordy: If he had some more paper clips.

Mr. King: More than that. Let me explain it this way. What's the most important rescue God wants to give you?

Gordy: Paper clips?

Mr. King: No, God wants to rescue you from the power of sin and spiritual darkness. He wants you to know Jesus so you can live every day with Jesus as your King. That is such an important rescue. If he does that for you, then won't he also rescue you when you are losing a game in your small group?

Gordy: I guess so. But then again...

Mr. King: Gordy, watch our large group game today, and it will remind you how God is our rescuer even when he rescued his people hundreds of years before Jesus was born. He was showing them a picture of the way he would one day send his Son Jesus. Watch this game.

Who's the Real Rescuer?

Interactive Game

For this game you will need six two-liter bottles half-filled with water but sealed tightly with a cap. Also a "fishing pole" with a hook fashioned from the curved portion of a coat hanger. Place the bottles so they are lying on their sides.

The object of the game is for contestants to hook one of the bottles with the fishing pole to make it stand up. Once the hook has lost contact with the bottle or the bottle slips back down, the contestant's turn is over.

Invite three boys and three girls to be the contestants. (Don't pick visitors who have not heard these Bible events.) They must answer the questions correctly before they can "rescue" one of the bottles with the fishing pole. Choose a girl first, then a boy, and continue in this manner. Let them pick a question by guessing a number from one to six. The large group leader will read the question of that corresponding number.

The teaching point of the large group is that throughout the Old Testament, God shows how he rescues his people. In many ways, these rescue events are but shadows of the real rescue to come, which is through Jesus.

- 1. When the children of Israel were slaves in Egypt they were rescued on the Passover night. On that night the angel of death struck the first-born of the land but spared every home that was marked with blood on the doorpost. This blood was from a lamb. Many years later John the Baptist pointed to someone and said, "Look, he is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world." Who was John the Baptist calling the "Lamb of God," and how did he take away the sin of the world? (Jesus. By dying on the cross and shedding his blood for us.)

2. When the Israelites wandered through the wilderness, God gave them manna or bread from heaven. Many years later when Jesus lived he said he was the bread coming down from heaven, and then he did a miracle of feeding bread to 5,000 people. Tell about this miracle. (Jesus prayed and then multiplied two small loaves and five fishes into enough to feed all those people.)
3. God inflicted the people with a disease when they complained. They would die unless they looked at a bronze snake that was lifted up on a wooden pole. If they saw it, they were saved. Years later, a person was lifted up on wooden beams. If anyone looks to him with faith they will be saved from their sin. Who is he? (Jesus.) What do we call the wooden beams that Jesus was lifted upon? (A cross.)
4. Deborah was a woman judge in the Old Testament who helped bring a rescue to God's people. Many years later, another young lady named Mary helped bring a rescue to God's people. What did Mary do to help God's rescue? (She gave birth to Jesus.)
5. On Mount Sinai, God gave Moses the Ten Commandments. It was the Word of God. Many years later there was a person who kept the Commandments perfectly. He was also referred to as God's Word made human. Who was he? (Jesus.)
6. In the Old Testament, the Ark of the Covenant was kept in the Holy of Holies. Once a year the blood of a goat was placed on it as a sin offering for all the people. The Ark of the Covenant was special because it represented God's presence with his people. Many years later, God made his presence known through Jesus. How is the sacrifice of the goat like Jesus? (He died on the cross. He poured out his blood.)

Gordy and the Rescue Chain

Puppet Presentation Conclusion

Gordy: Mr. King, that was cool how those kids rescued the bottles, but I don't understand something.

Mr. King: What's that, Gordy?

Gordy: It all seemed too easy.

Mr. King: What do you mean?

Gordy: Well, the answer was always Jesus.

Mr. King: You're right Gordy! That's because throughout the Old Testament, God was always showing himself to be the rescuer, and he was always telling the story that he would send his own Son as the rescuer.

Gordy: And Jesus rescued us by dying on the cross and rising from the dead, right?

Mr. King: Right.

Gordy: But I don't get it!

Mr. King: Get what?

Gordy: Why doesn't everyone understand who Jesus is? He is the one who rescued us.

Mr. King: Well Gordy, I don't understand it, either. It seems that since God has been telling the story for thousands of years, people should know. But I guess sometimes people don't like to listen.

Gordy: Well, I want to listen, and I believe Jesus rescued me.

Mr. King: Fantastic, Gordy!

Gordy: I think it is a lot harder to do than rescuing those Coke bottles, but I don't think I could do that, either.

Mr. King: You're right, Gordy. What God did is much harder than rescuing Coke bottles like we did in our game. But since he sent Jesus as our Savior, anyone who trusts in him can know for sure that they are rescued. Why don't you pray for us?

Gordy: Okay. Dear God, thank you for rescuing us. Thank you for sending Jesus as our Savior. Please help anyone who doesn't believe, to trust him. You did everything we need to get to heaven, and I thank you. Also, help us to tell others this good news. In Jesus' name. Amen.
