

Date: _____
Series: God's Top Ten
Winter Year 1, Lesson 35

Honor God's Name

Take Home Point: *Honor God's Name (the 2nd commandment in Augustine Numbering or the 3rd commandment in Orthodox Numbering) *Repeat this phrase throughout the lesson.

Bible Event: Acts 4:7-12; Matthew 1:20-21

Key Verses: Exodus 20:7, "Never use the name of the LORD your God carelessly. The LORD will make sure that anyone who carelessly uses his name will be punished."

Philippians 2:9-11, "This is why God has given him an exceptional honor—the name honored above all other names – so that at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven, on earth, and in the world below will kneel and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father."

We will help kids know:

- Ten key images that will help them remember the Ten Commandments.
- To dishonor God's name is to dishonor God.
- God's name is to be used carefully and properly in prayer, praise and thanksgiving.
- The name Jesus means "salvation" and we are to use his name to ask for salvation.

We will help kids feel:

- Excited to remember and review the memory game recalling the Ten Commandments.
- Convicted at the times they have used God's name carelessly.
- Committed to respecting and honoring God's name.
- Comforted in the gospel of forgiveness through Jesus.

We will help kids do:

- Carefully balance an egg on a spoon to show the care we need in honoring God's name.
- Identify ways to honor God's name, like giving him thanks and praise.
- Continue the art project depicting the Ten Commandments.

Small Group Warm-Up: 15 minutes

Purpose: Get pointed in the right direction! Build relationships and help guests feel at ease. Do the learning readiness activity that will point your group in the right direction for the lessons.

As kids gather: Listen to memory verses from last week and give coupons for memory verses, for remembering to bring Bibles, and for bringing a guest.

Christianity today has two ways of numbering the Ten Commandments. Your leader or supply coordinator will supply the appendix pages that give you the numbering system your church uses (either Appendix A or B). If you are using the Augustine Numbering (Appendix A), you are covering the second commandment today. If you are using the Orthodox Numbering, you are covering the third commandment today.

During this Warm-Up time, review the bizarre story from lesson 33 that is a memory game. This is printed on the bottom of your appendix page and will help the kids learn a series of images that can help them recall the Ten Commandments. After only a few minutes of review, continue with the following.

Play the Game “Handle with Care.”

Supplies: one or two eggs per relay group, two or more spoons per relay group, stack of newspaper, one chair per relay group

In advance, prepare for a relay race challenging kids to balance an egg on a spoon. Unfold newspaper and spread a path ten feet long or more. At the end of the path, place a chair so the student walking the path can sit down easily and then return to the beginning of the path. (If group is large, have several relay teams.)

The object of the relay is for participants to one at a time, balance an egg on a spoon while walking to the chair, sitting down, walking back down the path and transferring the egg to the next participant’s spoon without dropping the egg or touching the egg with their hands. This need not be a race or contest between teams, but is simply a contest not to drop the egg.

Have all participants line up at the beginning of the path. Let all participants take turns attempting the feat. See if your teams can accomplish this task without dropping the eggs. Be prepared to clean up broken eggs by folding up the mess inside the laid out newspaper.

After the game, continue with this discussion:

The key to success in this game was handling the egg with great care and attention. When it wasn’t handled with care or attention, the egg was dropped and the results were, can we say, yucky.

Today, we will talk about handling something much more precious than an egg. It’s one of the most prized gifts that we can ever receive and we must treat it as such. This gift requires treatment with great care – even special honor. This has to do with the second (or third commandment). Can anyone guess what this great gift is? (God's name.)

Today we will learn what it means to **honor God's name*. In what ways do you think we can treat God's name with special care and honor?

Large Group Overview: 20-30 minutes

Purpose: Help kids observe what the Bible says. Present the Bible event in creative fashion. Help kids begin to interpret what it means.

Dramatic Presentation: “The Hunkel Doobergood Talk Show”—Hunkel interviews Carelessa Words who won the lottery, then dishonored God's name when she was awarded the prize. Hunkel also interviews Peter who misused God's name but also used God's name appropriately.

Small Group Application: 20-25 minutes

Purpose: Help kids map out the meaning of the Bible event in their lives. Use the questions to stimulate discussion, but don't feel tied to them. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. Include personal examples from your own faith journey. The example of Christ at work in your life will leave lasting impressions of how Christ can work in the children's lives.

Use your Bibles! Children need to learn how to look up references and follow along when scripture is read aloud. Allow for quality time of prayer at the close of the lesson.

Observation Questions: What happened?

The following Bible passages will delve into the power associated with Jesus' name.

Read together Matthew 1:20-21.

What does the name Jesus mean? (He saves.)

Why did God want his Son to be called by this name? (Matthew 1:21. "...because he will save his people from their sins.")

Refer to Acts 4:7-12.

What answer did Peter boldly give the chief priests when he was interrogated about how he healed a crippled man? The chief priest asked him, “By what power or in whose name did you do this?” (verse 7) (Acts 4:10, 12 “...because of the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth...No one else can save us. Indeed, we can be saved only by the power of the one named Jesus and not by any other person.”)

Interpretation Questions: What does this mean?

Read Philippians 2:9-11.

“This is why God has given him an exceptional honor—the name honored above all other names – so that at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven, on earth, and in the world below will kneel and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father.”

How great is Jesus’ name? (“...at the name of Jesus everyone in heaven, on earth, and in the world below will kneel and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord...”)

Why is Jesus’ name to be so greatly honored? (Because of how Jesus humbled himself, became man, and died on the cross for us. Because he fulfilled God’s plan and rose from the dead; he defeated death and the power of Satan.)

Should we use such a powerful name lightly? (NO!)

Application Questions: What does this mean to me?

Application Activity:

Supplies: appendix A1 or B1, markers, scissors, glue, Ten Commandments tablets from lesson 33, Ten Commandments for each kid

Have kids color and cut out today’s phrase: *Honor God’s name.

Then have them glue the phrase on their Ten Commandment stone tablet.

While working on the project, discuss ways to honor God’s name.

How can you use God’s name to praise him? How can you use his name to thank him? How can you use his name to call upon him for help?

What things can you say instead of using God’s name in situations that we discussed earlier, such as when angry or when wanting to emphasize something? (Oh, my! jeepers, Jimminy Cricket! I promise...etc. or say nothing at all)

Have kids repeat the take home point: *Honor God's name!

Closing Prayer:

Lord, We praise your holy name! We thank you that your name has power. Help us to honor you by honoring your name and keeping it holy, just like the Lord's prayer says, "Holy be your name." Thank you for Jesus and that we can be saved through him. We pray this in Jesus' holy name, Amen.

Safety and Security: Safety and security procedures are important for each church to carefully define and implement according to their unique needs. The security, safety, illness and accident procedures described in this curriculum are provided for example purposes only and may not be appropriate, applicable or adequate for every situation. Each church is responsible for determining whether any security, safety, illness and accident procedures contained in the curriculum are appropriate, applicable or adequate for its unique situation. The activities described in this curriculum require adult supervision and may not be suitable for each child and each situation. Each church is responsible for ensuring that adequate adult supervision is provided for all activities and for determining whether an activity is appropriate for each child and each situation. Kids Kount Publishing disclaims all liability for the implementation of any procedures or the performance of any activities described in this curriculum.

Large Group Presentation: 20-30 minutes

The Hunkel Doobergood Talk Show

The series, God's Top Ten, will use a spin-off from a television talk show format to present the topic. For our purposes, we are calling it the Hunkel Doobergood Talk Show, but feel free to rename it to better suit your setting (e.g. Sunday Morning Live, Early Morning with Hunkel, etc.). If a lady is the talk show host, it would be the Harriet Doobergood Talk Show.

The set for this may be elaborate or as simple as you desire. It would be helpful to have a title sign, an interview desk and some chairs for guests. We would recommend that you have someone slightly off the set who could hold up the cue cards that say, "laugh," "applause" or "moan." These cue cards will be necessary to enhance the jokes. You may need to warm up the audience by practicing the signs. You might even have someone video record it as if it were a T.V. studio. The video clips could then be shown elsewhere to promote your 5th-6th grade program.

Depending on your numbering system, the commandment to honor God's name will be either commandment number two or number three. Adapt this script to your numbering system.

Opening Jokes: Choose one

- 1. A man once visited the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, Springfield, Illinois. When taking a taxi from the airport, the man asked the taxi driver his name. "My name is Abraham Lincoln," the driver responded. "That's a right famous name around here," the passenger said. "Well, it ought to be," said the taxi driver. "I've lived here all my life."
- 2. You know why most hurricanes are named after women? No, why? *Because they are "her"-icanes not "him"-icanes.
- 3. What did the duck say when she bought some lipstick? *"Put it on my bill."

Props needed: a spoon, egg and newspaper covering the floor.

We have a wonderful show for you this morning. We're talking about a very special name. Its all part of God's Top Ten.

Last week, we learned to keep God number one. Today we are learning commandment number two (or three). This commandment is all about honoring God's name.

Show egg balancing on the spoon.

We just finished playing a game where we were very careful with an egg. Today, we will discover that God gave us the most precious gift of his name. Because it is so precious, he wants us to use it the right way. We must be careful how we use it and not let his name drop carelessly from our mouths or we'll make a big mess like this...

Let egg fall and hit newspaper on the floor.

To begin with let's start with our Top Ten. Today we'll name the top ten ways people fail to honor God's name.

Read through the list quickly.

Top Ten Ways People Fail to Honor God's Name

10. Swear an oath using God's name and then break that oath.
9. Use God's name to swear about silly things. For example: "I swear to God that this piece of bubble gum is mine. May he strike me dead if I'm lying."
8. Make careless jokes using God's name.
7. Use God's name to validate a conversation. Some will say "honest to God."
6. Emphasize your point in a conversation. For example, "Lord, yes, I want to go to the movies with you."
5. Using God's name after hitting your thumb with a hammer: "God _____ it." Meaning... God, send this hammer to hell. If God really answered that request, there would be lots of hammers in hell.
4. Using "God Almighty" as an expression of speech, such as "Good God Almighty, did you see the size of the bubble gum bubble he blew?"
3. Saying, "For God's sake" as an expression of speech, such as "For God's sake, would you please give me my bubble gum back.. but not after you chewed it."
2. Using the name "Jesus Christ" as an expression of speech, such as "Jesus Christ! This bubble gum has already been chewed!"
1. Saying, "Oh, my God" as an expression of speech, such as "I won the lottery... Oh, my God. Oh, my God!"

Bible Reading

Because we hear it so often, we start to think that casually saying, "Oh, my God" is not very serious. But it is extremely serious to God. As a matter of fact, let's read Exodus 20:7. This is God giving us commandment number two (or three).

“Never use the name of the LORD your God carelessly. The Lord will make sure that anyone who carelessly uses his name will be punished.”

There is a promise of punishment for those who use his name carelessly. In the Old Testament times, this was a crime punishable by death. Pretty serious. The Old Testament law in Leviticus 24:13 says this:

The LORD spoke to Moses, “The man who cursed my name must be taken outside the camp. All who heard him curse my name must lay their hands on his head. Then the whole congregation must stone him to death.”

People who dishonor God’s name dishonor God. In Isaiah 42:8, God says this:

I am the LORD; that is my name. I will not give my glory to anyone else or the praise I deserve to idols.

The following dialogue may or may not be memorized by the actors. If they choose not to memorize it, they need to be so familiar with it that they can create their own conversation and still cover the same points. If Hunkel has a desk, the script can be in front of him and he can glance down to read the next question, thus guiding the ad libbed conversation.

Carelessa Words

Guest Interview #1

Prop needed: large check from Good Word Publisher’s Clearing House

Introduce special guest, Carelessa Words

Hunkel: Our first guest is someone who reached great fame by receiving a phenomenal gift. This person won 32 million dollars from Good Word Publisher’s Clearing House sweepstakes. Please welcome, if you will, Ms. Carelessa Words.

Carelessa comes on stage with a large check from Good Word Publisher’s Clearing House.

Well, that’s quite a gift you’ve received there. Can you tell us about it?

Carelessa Words: Yes, this is a check for 32 million dollars. I received this check as a gift from Good Word Publisher’s Clearing House because my name was drawn.

Hunkel: Well, what did you say when they gave it to you?

Carelessa Words: (Excited, almost hysterical) Well, they knocked on my door and, and... I opened it...and there were cameras, uh-huh...and they had the check and it was signed already... and I couldn't believe it!...and I said, "Oh, my God! Oh, my God! I won! I won! Can you believe it? Oh, my God!"

Hunkel: So, what you are saying is that as soon as you won 32 million dollars, the first words out of your mouth were to dishonor God?

Carelessa Words: What do you mean? All I said was, "Oh, my God."

Hunkel: Well, were you praying to him?

Carelessa Words: No, I was just happy I won.

Hunkel: But you used his name as a common slang word.

Carelessa Words: Well, what's the big deal about that? Everyone does it.

Hunkel: It might not be a big deal to most people, but it is a big deal to God. It's big enough that he told us to honor his name, to treat it carefully, not just let it drop out of our mouths. When we speak his name, we are referring to him. It's so serious, in fact, that in the Old Testament, for such a thing you would have been stoned to death.

Carelessa Words: Now, wait a minute. I don't understand.

Hunkel: Well, let's look at it this way. May I see your check, please? Carelessa passes her check to Hunkel. You haven't cashed this check yet.

Carelessa Words: Right, that check is worth 32 million dollars.

Hunkel: But this is just a piece of paper...

Carelessa Words: Yes, but when I take it to the bank, they'll give me 32 million dollars.

Hunkel: But this is just a piece of paper. You wouldn't mind if I wadded it up like this, would you? Wad up the check.

Carelessa Words: Hey, wait a minute!

Hunkel: Maybe I should tear it in half. Pretend to begin a tear.

Carelessa Words: Don't you dare!

Hunkel: Or maybe, I should clean up an egg mess with it.

Carelessa Words: What?! Don't you care that it's worth 32 million dollars?

Hunkel: That's my point exactly. God gives us a gift and that gift is his name. We can use his name to call upon him for salvation, to call upon him in times of trouble or need. He will hear and answer us. But when we use it just as an expression of speech, we're treating his name like it means nothing. Almost like it was a rag to clean up messes.

Carelessa Words: Wow. I never thought of that. Can I have my check back now?

Hunkel: Well, I suppose so. I guess you wouldn't want to trust it to anyone who wouldn't honor it.

Hunkel: Just like God. He would want us to honor his name. Passes check back to Carelessa.

Carelessa Words: Well, all right then. At least I know how to take care of this check. The next thing I'll do is cash it in.

Hunkel: Well, Ms. Words, as you do that, maybe you can remember that God has given you a gift that is even more precious than that check. It is his name. And, you can cash it in anytime you go to him and give him your thanks and praise or anytime you call upon his name in times of trouble.

Why don't we give Ms. Carelessa Words a round of applause in appreciation for how she is going to choose to honor God's name.

Carelessa exits.

Simon Peter

Guest Interview #2

Interview with Peter

Peter can be dressed in period costume or in contemporary costume. If he uses contemporary costume, some ad libbed dialogue can be given to his assessment of clothing in the 21st century.

The following dialogue may or may not be memorized by the actors. If they choose not to memorize it, they need to be so familiar with it that they can create their own conversation and still cover the same points. If Hunkel has a desk, the script can be in front of him and he can glance down to read the next question, thus guiding the ad libbed conversation.

Hunkel: My next guest was one of Jesus' closest friends. As a matter of fact, he was one of the leaders of Jesus' first disciples and he even wrote a couple books in the New Testament. Would you please welcome Mr. Simon Peter?

Mr. Peter, you are looking well these days.

Peter: Thank you, Hunkel. Feeling well.

Hunkel: Peter, today we are talking about commandment number two (or three) that says, "Honor God's name" – or as another translation says it, "Don't take God's name in vain." I'm sure as a close friend of Jesus, and a leader in the early Christian church, you never dishonored God's name. Maybe you could tell us how you were successful.

Peter: Well... (looking down with sadness) There was a time I broke this commandment as bad as it could be broken.

Hunkel: What? You, Peter? What did you do?

Peter: It was the night that Jesus was arrested in the garden. They took him into the temple courtyard late at night while I waited outside. Some people recognized me as one who had been with Jesus. I denied three times and finally swore an oath that I did not know him. I cursed. (Hang head in shame.)

Hunkel: Why did you do that?

Peter: Well, people who curse certainly don't give the appearance of being a follower of Jesus, and I was afraid to be arrested as his follower. If a person curses, or swears, or uses God's name lightly, he doesn't look or sound like a Christian. So, I swore I did not know Jesus.

Hunkel: That does sound pretty bad, Peter. So, how did you recover from this?

Peter:

Well, I was crushed. Later, I even broke down and bawled like a baby. But I experienced something three days later that changed my world forever. After Jesus died on the cross, I witnessed that he was alive again. Then, it all made sense.

His death on the cross provides forgiveness for my sin and my failures. I could have a new start, a new chance. The name Jesus became so precious to me. Even when he left us and ascended into heaven, calling upon his name meant we could call upon his power and presence right then.

As a matter of fact, I have a great story about that. It's a true account. It's written in the Bible in Acts. Jesus, through me, healed a crippled man. This happened soon after Jesus had left us and returned to heaven but left us his power... the power to call upon his name. And, that is what I did. I said, "In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, walk." And the crippled man walked. (Acts 3:6 NIV)

Then, when the religious rulers questioned me about it, this is what I told them: "If we are being asked to explain acts of kindness given to a crippled man and asked how he was healed, then you must know this. It was by the name of Jesus he was healed."

So you see, Hunkel, the name of Jesus is very powerful. When we call upon his name and know him as our Savior and Lord, why miracles happen, even the best miracle of all, which is salvation through Jesus' death and resurrection.

Hunkel:

And that is how we honor God's name.

Peter:

Exactly. Believe on the Lord Jesus and you will be saved. In fact, the name, Jesus, literally means "He saves." (Matthew 1:21)

Hunkel:

Well, thank you so much. This helps us make sense about what it means to honor God's name. We shouldn't treat God's name lightly, or use it to curse or speak false oaths, but instead, his name is a gift given to us. We can call on God's name to ask for salvation and help in every time of need or trouble.

Let's close in prayer.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that you have given us your name. And you have given us the name of Jesus. Forgive us for the times we have dishonored you by treating your name so lightly and without respect. Help us to use your name to pray and praise and give thanks. Help us to use your name to call upon you in times of trouble or difficulty. Thank you that you hear our prayers and praise, even as we pray this prayer. In Jesus' name, Amen.

This is Hunkel Doobergood signing off. Remember—Keep those commandments: It's good for God, and it's good for us! And today, remember to **honor God's name.*

See you again next Sunday at the Hunkel Doobergood Talk Show.

Narration

For the memory game, picture a big, fat, stone idol. Out of it’s mouth flows huge block letters... N-A-M-E. That spells “name.” The letters now float down and land on a long, wooden church bench. The church bench begins to move! Your parents are pulling it! Where is it going? They’re pulling it across a very large knife. The knife falls and stabs through a Playboy magazine. A huge fist grabs the magazine. Then, two very red ears come out of each side of the fist. POP! One arm comes out and reaches for a lady driving a sports car, then, POP, the other arm comes out and reaches for her house.

7th	“You shall not commit adultery.”	The knife falls and stabs through a Playboy magazine.
8th	“You shall not steal.”	A huge fist grabs the magazine! Then, pop...
9th	“You shall not bear false witness against your neighbor.”	Two very red ears come out of the big fist. And...
10th	“You shall not covet your neighbor’s household or you shall not desire anything that is your neighbor’s.”	Out of the ear comes an arm that reaches for a lady in her house.

Narration

For the memory game, picture a big, fat, stone idol. Someone is using a hammer and chiseling pieces out of the idol. Out of the idol’s mouth flows huge block letters... N-A-M-E. They spell “name.” The letters now float down and land on a long, wooden church bench. The church bench begins to move! Your parents are pulling it! Where is it going? They’re pulling it across a very large knife. The knife falls and stabs through a Playboy magazine. A huge fist grabs the magazine. Then, two very red ears come out of each side of the fist. Then, all of a sudden, one arm comes out of the ear and reaches for a lady in her house.
