Series: Holy Spirit Blaze
Summer Year 1, Lesson 2

God Sends the Holy Spirit

Take Home Point: *God sends the Holy Spirit to fill us with his presence. *Repeat this phrase throughout the lesson.

Bible Event: Acts 2:1-41

Key Verses: John 14:16-17, "I will ask the Father, and he will give you another helper who will be with you forever. That helper is the Spirit of Truth... he lives with you and will be in you."

We will help kids know:

- The Holy Spirit is God. He is the third person of the Trinity, equal with God the Father and God the Son.
- God sends the Holy Spirit to fill us with his holy presence and direct our life. He is our coach.
- The Holy Spirit is sometimes seen in wind and fire throughout the Bible such as at Pentecost.

We will help kids feel:

- Awe at God's desire to fill us with himself.
- Comfort that we are not alone and can invite the Holy Spirit's presence.

We will help kids do:

- Make wind racers as an example of the Holy Spirit filling our lives.
- Discuss some of their experiences on teams and with different coaches or teachers.
- Discuss how they see themselves on God's team and interacting with their coach, the Holy Spirit.

Introduction to the Series: Holy Spirit Blaze

This series is designed for convenience in summer when there may be fewer shepherds or inconsistent attendance of the kids, making it harder for the groups to have the regular “small group” dynamic. This easier summer option will give the large group presenter an opportunity to lead the Warm-Up and Application activities while the kids are divided into triads or groups of three. The large group presenter plays the role of the coach and uses different games with the kids to illustrate the learning points. The kids are invited to join the team—Holy Spirit Blaze.

The character for this series is dressed in a coach’s outfit including a baseball cap and whistle. Across the presenter’s t-shirt or jersey is the team’s name - HOLY SPIRIT BLAZE. This could be as simple as taping the words to the t-shirt or as elaborate as painting them on. The coach is a visual reminder of the Holy Spirit as one who teaches and coaches us. His/her name is Coach Philip/Phyllis Widaspirit. (Saying the first and last name together will sound like “fill up with the Spirit” or “fill us with the Spirit.”)

Small Group Warm-Up: 15 minutes

Purpose: Get pointed in the right direction! Build relationships and help guests feel at ease. Do the learning readiness activity that will point your group in the right direction for the lesson.

Summertime Options

Regular Shepherd Option: Do the Warm-Up activity as a small group. If you like, you can still divide into triads within your small group. This helps each child participate more.

Easier Summer Option: Instead of having kids in small groups with an assigned shepherd, the kids can meet all together and divide themselves into triads (groups of three). This allows for larger ratios between students and shepherds. Shepherds will monitor the kids' activity as needed by roaming from group to group. The questions and directions for all the kids and their groups are by the large group presenter. If this is used, go to the introduction of large group to introduce the main character used in this series.

Supplies: one racer kit per group which includes: 1) kite string cut about 20 feet long, 2) one large deflated balloon, 3) one piece of tape about four inches long, 4) a plastic straw cut in half

Building the Wind Racers

As kids enter, the large group presenter (for the easier summer option) or shepherd for small group blows his whistle and gives the following directions.

If you use the easier summer option, the large group presenter, Coach Widaspirit, introduces him/herself from the script on page 8. Then Coach Widaspirit gives directions as follows:

As you come in, find two other people to be in your triad. Make up groups of three. Send one person up to get a wind racer kit. You will build a racer with the supplies and see how far it can go.

When groups have their supplies, give the following directions step by step for building the wind racers.

1. Insert the string through the straw so it can travel freely.
2. Have two kids hold the string tight.
3. The third kid should blow up the balloon but not tie it.
4. While holding the balloon at the end so air does not escape, he/she

- should tape the balloon to the straw with the open end of the balloon facing the person holding it.
5. As he/she lets go of the balloon, the air coming out will force the balloon and straw across the string.

Have kids take turns holding the string and letting go of the balloon. See if kids can get their balloon to travel all the way across the string. Compete against other teams.

Allow ten minutes for this activity and then blow your whistle. Then have kids sit down in groups as each person is given an opportunity to discuss the following with their partners:

Tell about a favorite coach or teacher that you have had. This could be from a sport, school, or maybe a piano teacher. What did you like about him/her?

Blow your whistle when you are ready to move on to the next question.

Now, talk about a coach or teacher that was your least favorite. What made them your least favorite?

Again, blow your whistle to get the kids attention and draw them all together. Then say:

Today we will learn how the Holy Spirit is like a coach to us, guiding us and giving us direction for life. Just like this balloon was full of invisible air that propelled the wind racers to sail, God sends the Holy Spirit to fill us with his presence.*

Large Group Overview: 20-30 minutes

Purpose: Help kids observe what the Bible says. Present the Bible event in creative fashion. Help kids begin to interpret what it means.

Teaching Point: Coach Widaspirit teaches basic truths about the Holy Spirit, inviting kids to join the team, Holy Spirit Blaze. Coach Widaspirit explains the person of the Holy Spirit to the kids.

Video: Visual Bible Acts 2:1-41, produced by Visual Bible International, 1997

Small Group Application: 20-25 minutes

Purpose: Help kids map out the meaning of the Bible event in their lives. Use the questions to stimulate discussion, but don't feel tied to them. Allow the Holy Spirit to guide you. Include personal examples from your own faith journey. The example of Christ at work in your life will leave lasting impressions of how Christ can work in the children's lives.

Use your Bibles! Children need to learn how to look up references and follow along when scripture is read aloud. Allow for quality time of prayer at the close of the lesson.

Application Questions: What does this mean to me?

After kids return to their triads, continue:

Let's consider that we are in a baseball game right now. If the Holy Spirit is your coach, where are you in the game?

Are you in the stands watching the game? Possibly you are on the bench waiting to get into the game.

Are you on the playing field?

What position are you playing?

There are no incorrect answers. This is just a visual way of seeing how much you are a part of the Holy Spirit's team following Christ.

Let kids discuss where they see themselves and why.

If you are sitting in the stands wanting to be a part of the team going to heaven, you can be right now. Admit to God that you have done things that are wrong, and your relationship with God is broken. Is the Holy Spirit leading you to accept Jesus as your Savior? Claim for yourself what Jesus Christ has done on the cross for your sins. He died and rose again. Ask for forgiveness and Jesus to live in your life.

*God sends the Holy Spirit to fill us with his presence. The Holy Spirit can direct you to Jesus, and you need to put your faith and trust in him, allowing him to be the Lord of your life. The Holy Spirit then becomes your coach and directs your life.

The key verse for today from John 14:16-17 says, "I will ask the Father, and he will give you another helper who will be with you forever. That helper is the Spirit of Truth... he lives with you and will be in you."

Closing Prayer:

Let's pray. If you have never been on this team, trust Jesus as your Savior and thank him when you pray with us. You, too, can be a part of the HOLY SPIRIT BLAZE team.

Dear God, thank you for letting us talk to you. We know that you hear us, even if we are talking to you just in our thoughts. Thank you for sending the Holy Spirit who teaches us about you and leads us to faith in you.

Each one of us comes to you, admitting that we are sinners and need the power of your forgiveness. We have faith that Jesus' death and resurrection has the power to take away our sin. We ask now that you would forgive us.

We pray that Jesus would live in our life as Lord and Savior, and through the Holy Spirit, he would guide and direct us in all that we do. In Jesus' name, Amen.

(Saying the first and last name together will sound like "fill up with the Spirit" or "fill us with the Spirit.")

- video Visual Bible Acts 2:1-41
- 4 X 6 inch cardboard cross cutouts per team

Introduction of Philip (Phyllis) Widaspirit:

Let me formally introduce myself to you. I am Coach Widaspirit, Philip (Phyllis) Widaspirit. Just so you will NOT forget my name repeat after me... Philip (Phyllis) Widaspirit.

Have kids repeat.

You got it. That is what we will do today. We are going to fill up with the Spirit.

I am the coach of the team Holy Spirit Blaze. It is my privilege to welcome you to training camp. Since you have all been hand selected, I know this is going to be a champion team!

One of our objectives as a team is to learn all about the Holy Spirit. He is the presence of God in your lives and is your ultimate coach.

One of the greatest forces on earth is the Holy Spirit of God. He wants us to be filled up with himself. When we are, we are BLAZING!

Now, let's get down to business.

The Holy Spirit is God

Let me explain our game plan.

Draw the diagram of the Trinity from the appendix page.

This is our ball field. This will help you understand the coaching system. This is one way of looking at God. God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit are all persons of God. But, the Father is not the Son, the Holy Spirit is not the Father, and the Son is not the Holy Spirit.

The three are different persons with different roles. God the Father created us, God the Son gave his life for us, and God the Holy Spirit fills us with God's presence.

Okay, team, here is a quick quiz to see if you understand the field we play on. We have one God in three persons. Who are the three persons of God? (Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.)

The Holy Spirit Fills and Directs Our Lives

Have your Bibles ready, as we will look up verses together that help us understand how the Holy Spirit fills and directs our lives. He is like a coach.

Let's start by looking up John 14:16-17.

Give the kids time to look it up and read it together.

"I (Jesus) will ask the Father, and he will give you another helper who will be with you forever. That helper is the Spirit of Truth. The world cannot accept him, because it doesn't see or know him. You know him, because he lives with you and will be in you."

Now, stay in the same chapter but go down to verse 26. Who will read this verse for us?

Have a volunteer stand and read the verse.

"However, the helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything. He will remind you of everything that I have ever told you."

In chapter 16 verses 7 and 8 of the book of John, Jesus tells his disciples about the Holy Spirit who will come after Jesus leaves.

Have a volunteer stand and read John 16:7-8 from his/her Bible.

“...It’s good for you that I’m going away. If I don’t go away, the helper won’t come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. He will come to convict the world of sin, to show the world what has God’s approval, and to convince the world that God judges it.”

Have treats or prizes handy to give three volunteers who answer the following question.

I have prizes to give three people who can tell me one thing the Holy Spirit will do when he comes upon you. Each answer must be different. (Choices for answers include: be with you forever, live with you and in you, teach, remind us of what Jesus taught, convict the world of sin, show the world God’s approval, convince the world that God judges it.)

Let’s take a look at when the Holy Spirit came upon the people. Forty days after Jesus’ crucifixion, he ascended into heaven. People were waiting for Jesus to send the promised Holy Spirit who would fill them with the presence of God.

Finally, ten days after Jesus’ ascension into heaven, on the day of Pentecost, something incredible happened. Let’s watch and see what occurred.

Video

Show the video, Visual Bible: Acts (produced by Visual Bible International, 1997) from Chapter 2:1-41. This will run for six minutes and 45 seconds.

After the video, continue with:

Wind and Fire

Throughout the Bible, the presence of God is sometimes pictured for people as fire and wind. I have a prize for anyone who can think of a time in the Bible when God’s presence was seen in fire. (Accept any one or two examples: the burning bush with Moses, the pillar of fire leading the children of Israel, the fire stopping the chariots from pursuing the children of Israel across the red sea.)

One thing significant about Pentecost is now God’s presence is put into people’s lives. God dwells within our lives. He is not just seen from afar.

Refer to your HOLY SPIRIT BLAZE jersey.

If we have the Holy Spirit within us, we actually have God's presence in our lives. This is like the early disciples that had fire on top of their head as a visible way that people saw the Holy Spirit in their lives.

What Does the Holy Spirit Do?

Have teams pick up their racers from the beginning of the lesson. Have them each place a cross on the end of the string where the balloon finishes the race. Do this by putting a small hole in the middle of the cross and pulling the string through it. Tie the string on the back of the cardboard cross.

Allow the teams to race their racers seeing whose racer gets to the cross first or goes the farthest. Give prizes to the winners.

Conclusion

Have the kids sit down and listen. Then continue with:

The cross at the end of the string reminds us that the Holy Spirit guides us in our lives. Blowing up the balloon is like God breathing into our lives his breath, or Holy Spirit, through which he points us to the cross. The Holy Spirit helps us to have faith in Jesus Christ, our Savior, and helps us serve and follow Jesus. God sends the Holy Spirit to fill us with his presence.*

Have kids return to their triads or small group area where they will continue.

If staying in large group, the presenter leads kids through the small group application time.
