

God Talk At Home

Ages 4-5-K

This Week's Lesson:

Elijah and the Prophets of Baal

Take Home Point:

(Parents Say): God is powerful.

(Kids Say): Pray to God for help.

DRIVE TIME HOME

PARENTS, ASK ME WHAT I DID TODAY IN KINGDOM QUEST.

- Participated in a Bible event competition between Elijah and the prophets of Baal.
- Made a craft of a burning altar.
- Used a "weightlifting" activity to discuss God's power.
- Made and ate "Elijah's Altar Snack."

DRIVE TIME HOME

PARENTS, ASK ME WHAT I DID TODAY IN KIDS CHURCH.

- Learned about Elijah & the prophets of Baal from "The Traveler"
- Made and ate a "Fire & Water" snack
- Made a burning altar craft as a reminder that "God is powerful – pray to God for help."
- Made play dough altars in the messy zone.

FAMILY DEVOTIONS: Read the Bible Event or Bible Verse

Elijah and the Prophets of Baal, from an early reading Bible or read and summarize the event from 1 Kings 18:16-39.

JESUS LINK:

We pray in Jesus' name.

TALK ABOUT IT:

- Tell what happened in the contest between God's prophet Elijah and the wicked prophets of Baal.
- When can we pray to God for help?
- What prayers have you seen God answer in your faith?

PRAYER POWER:

Discuss some of the problems your child or family struggles with. Choose one problem and commit to praying for it every day for a week, asking for God's help.

FAMILY TIME OPTIONS:

Take a prayer walk with your child. Walk around your neighborhood and pray for neighbors. Ideas of things to pray for are: a neighbor who is expecting a child, a family that is moving away or has just moved in, a friend who recently had a birthday, or someone who is hurt or ill.
