

God Talk at Home

Ages 4-5-K

This Week's Lesson:

Blind Bartimaeus

Take Home Point:

(Parents Say) When I pray,
(Kids Say) Jesus listens to me.

DRIVE TIME HOME

PARENTS, ASK ME WHAT I DID TODAY IN KINGDOM QUEST.

- Closed our eyes while we listened to someone pretending to be Bartimaeus tell how he called out to Jesus and Jesus gave him sight.
- Listened to what was in a bag for snack and guessed what it was as a reminder that Jesus listens to us pray.
- Played a game, "Son of David," to teach us to call out to Jesus in prayer.

DRIVE TIME HOME

PARENTS, ASK ME WHAT I DID TODAY IN KIDS CHURCH.

- Ate Oreo cookies to represent the darkened eyes of Bartimaeus. When we ask Jesus to help, we "see the light."
- Made praying hands to remind us that when I pray, Jesus listens to me.*
- We were blindfolded and tried guessing what objects were.

FAMILY DEVOTIONS: Read the Bible Event or Bible Verse

Blind Bartimaeus from an early reading Bible or read and summarize the event from Mark 10:46-52

JESUS LINK: Jesus loves to hear and answer our prayers. Talk to him.

TALK ABOUT IT:

- What did Bartimaeus ask of Jesus?
- How did Jesus answer Bartimaeus?
- What can you talk to Jesus about in prayer?

PRAYER POWER:

What is a problem you are having? Tell Jesus your problem and ask him to help you.

FAMILY TIME OPTIONS:

Blindfold your child and lead him or her on a walk around the house. Explain to your child that, just as he could trust you, he can trust that Jesus listens when he prays.
